

Christopher P. Chatmon

My name is Christopher P. Chatmon and I am a Father of 3 boys, a committed husband of 10+ years and the founding Executive Director of the Urban Services YMCA here in Oakland. I am the product of the Public School System and graduated from High School in 1985. I received my bachelor's degree in psychology with a minor in history from San Francisco State University in January 1992. My commitment to educating and empowering children led to an internship with the Multicultural Teaching Alliance which provided me with a full scholarship to Brown University where I received a Master of Arts in Education and a secondary teaching credential in social science in May 1995. Presently I am an active member of the Bay Area Chapter of 100 Black Men, member of the Youth Advisory Council – Workforce Investment Board, Board Member Oakland Babe Ruth & OASIS High School and a servant leader.
